Even though Keith retired from campus work in the spring, the University of Waterloo Chaplaincy Association and the University of Guelph Multi-Faith Resource Team are letting him post the following on their main bulletin boards.

Keith plans to visit each campus or city every other month to meet with students, alumni and faculty who would like to stay connected. In August he had visits in Guelph with a grad student, an alumni, and a faculty member and his family, exchanging ideas and resources about both life and death.
